Watercolour Workshop

With Kathy Karas

TELOPEA

From the Greek meaning - "seen from afar"

Join artist Kathy Karas for this two-day watercolour mixed media workshop painting a stunning contemporary Waratah still life.

Day one will be packed with information and step by step instruction about composition, colour choices and how to use stencil and gold leaf.

Day two will be painting the still life with step-by-step instruction to take your art to the next level.

Kathy recommends attending both days to get the most from this workshop.

A materials list will be provided on booking.
